PROSPECTUS

I - DON BOSCO

The college is named after St. John Bosco, popularly known as Don Bosco, the founder of the religious and educational order 'Salesians of Don Bosco'. Don Bosco was born in 1815, of a very poor family, near Turin in Italy. By dint of hard work and heroic sacrifices he became a priest in 1841. He dedicated himself to the service of poor youth, offering them food, shelter and education. He opened for them schools, technical schools, hostels and chapels. He founded a society of collaborators and extended his work to all Europe and eventually to all continents. Don Bosco died on January 31, 1888 and was declared a saint on April 1, 1934.

Don Bosco based his system of education on the Three Great Principles of Reason, Religion and Kindness. He looked after the youth as a caring father and dedicated himself totally to their welfare. He did not visualize education in isolation from the needs of the community. Vocational guidance, training and job placement were integral to his scheme of Education.

II- DON BOSCO SOCIETY

Don Bosco Society, also known as 'The Salesians of Don Bosco', is a Religious Order of the Catholic Church. The Society has over 32,000 members working in 132 countries. Through a global network of educational and social service organizations which include 15 universities, 58 institutions of higher education and thousands of schools and social development centres, it cares for the less privileged and marginalized sections of the society. It currently caters to over fifteen million young people the world over. The Society enjoys consultancy status at the United Nations because of its rich and expertise in the field of education, the Society enjoys consultancy status at the United Nations.

III - DON BOSCO SOCIETY IN INDIA

In India, the Salesians of Don Bosco began their operations way back in 1906 from a small beginning with a trade school and a hostel for poor children at Thanjavoor, Tamil Nadu. The Society today has over 5000 members (Fathers, Sisters and Brothers). Its services are offered through 31 colleges, over 100 technical schools, and a large network of high schools and scores of non-formal technical and agricultural training centres, spread across the country, covering the entire spectrum of social development. The Society also runs literacy centres, shelters for the street children and rehabilitation and relief operations.

IV - DON BOSCO P.U. COLLEGE

Don Bosco P.U. College, Yadgiri is managed by The Don Bosco Society, Yadgiri. which is an affiliate of the Bangalore Salesian Society and a sister institution of the other Educational institutions run by the Don Bosco Society all over the world.

CODE OF CONDUCT :

Students once admitted to the college are encouraged to imbibe the spirit of Don Bosco PU College and to aim at attaining the benefits of good education. The College places a heavy responsibility on the parents to familiarize themselves with the Mission and Objectives and the Code of Conduct laid down by the College, and play their role effectively in guiding their ward to follow the rules and regulations of the college not only to the letter but in the spirit behind these regulations.

The individual student is responsible for the College standards in matters of dress and deportment. With regards to dress, norms of simplicity, modesty and propriety are to be kept in mind.

DRESS CODE :

Dress code must be strictly followed while in the college campus. Students should wear the college uniform on working days. Personal appearance is an important aspect of communicating professionalism, particularly for a student. A professional appearance helps to develop self - confidence and promote an environment of mutual respect and dignity. To achieve these objectives, a special dress code is prescribed by the college. Students are to come to the college neatly and decently dressed. College uniform must be worn on all days except on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

ATTENDANCE

Attendance is compulsory. Every student is required to attend minimum 80% of lectures delivered in each course. Attendance will be taken for each lecture. Any absence should be with prior sanctioned leave. In case of any emergency such as sickness, bereavement, etc., the student or guardian should inform the office of the Principal promptly. Students should also produce a Medical Certificate in case of absence due to illness.

Irregularity in attendance for classes, tests and examinations, lack of co-operation in disciplinary matters and failure of parents to assume responsibilities made known by the College are areas that the College is particularly strict about and those found indulging in the same could be denied permission to answer the final examination.

Education in Don Bosco Pre-University College is a joint endeavour of the Management, Staff, Parents, Guardian and Students and our basic objective is the overall development of the student, keeping in mind his/her role as an individual, a member of a family, a citizen of the country, a social and most importantly a human being.

Parents do please note that a student is admitted to the College only for one year. He/she will be re-admitted only if the College authorities are satisfied by the student's response and that of the parents.

SCHOLARSHIP

Students can avail of all the scholarships available from the government through the college.
